and the fairest damsels in Texas and even so in Oklahoma. Howbeit when such speed hath no governor at the time one death his meals there is much danger. It causeth one to ascend to the tent of divers illnesses where ye keeper, passeth out many vile and foul tasting medicines. It causeth ye stomach much pain and distress; it causeth ye head-aches, ye bolly-aches, and ye other painful aches. It leadeth unto the mule ambulance ride, and lo! I have many witnesses that such is not to be enjoyed.

Now then in ye conclusion of ye conclusion of ye first number of ye health advice series let us draw near and remember that as certain as he that is swiftest on ye draw will someday surely die and ye death will be most violent, even so among you who wouldst live the longest must be a slow and careful eater, and unto him will be granted many days of happiness, wealth and longevity.

YE DOCTOR ADVICE

Hear! Hear! The matter ye doctor would discuss this morn is of eating of food. It cometh to the attention of this medico that ye inmates of Camp NP-3...are very fast and rapid men. Ye are swift on the foot in rising from ye hole to the kin which is one mile closer heaven, ye runneth hither and yon, ye even unto ye local beer parlor for to get a glass of beer. Now it seemeth to ye adviser that such a thing in ones character is of much value because it catcheth the street car.
